Rev. Mike King, Associate Pastor July 7, 2013

Exodus 35:30-36:3

Talk it over...with your friends, family, or Growth Group.

Talking through the ideas presented in Sunday's message helps us apply God's word to our individual lives. These questions are designed to help you put His words into action this week.

- If you had to sit down today and answer the question "Does my life matter?" how would you answer that question? How would you define a life that matters?

- Imagine that you are nearing the end of your life. What would you want your legacy to be? How do you want to be remembered? What causes, issues, relationships, or values will you want to have impacted? What do you need to do in the present to help move towards leaving that legacy?

- What would you say are your biggest gifts and abilities? What causes, relationships, or issues are you passionate about? How could your gifts and abilities help you make a difference in the things that matter most to you? How could inviting God's Spirit to help empower you make a difference?

- What's your big take away from this morning? What did you get out of your time here today? What do you need to do as a result of what you heard or experienced?