

Talk it over...with your friends, family, or Growth Group.

Talking through the ideas presented in Sunday's message helps us apply God's word to our individual lives. These questions are designed to help you put His words into action in your life this week.

- In Colossians 4 we are encouraged to “make the most” of every opportunity we have. Since it can be difficult to find time to add new things to our schedules, what are some ways that you can “make the most” of what you are already doing in order to reach your goals this year?
- Joe spoke this morning about the need to allow Christ to shape our attitude towards giving. What might it look like in your life to try radical Christian giving? How might your motivations and actions change? Do you truly believe that you cannot “out-give” God?
- What do you need to take away from what you experienced today? What practical steps could you take to help you apply what you heard from God today to your daily life?

Some next steps: Here are some things you can do this week to dig deeper:

- Those of you who consider Redeemer your church home should receive a pledge card from us in the mail this week. God is at work, putting this broken world back together, and He is giving us the chance to join Him. Are you up for it? If so, take the time this week to prayerfully consider how you can pledge your time, your gifts, and your finances in order to partner with God in the work He is doing in and through Redeemer in the upcoming year.
- If you don't receive a pledge card from us and you consider Redeemer your church home it's because we don't have your information in our system! Drop us a line at redeemer@rcctulsa.org sometime this week to find out more about how you can get plugged in.
- God to show you how to put it into practice in your daily life.
