“Wait and See” by Brandon Heath

I was born in Tennessee; late July humidity
Doctor said I was lucky to be alive
I’ve been trouble since the day that I got here
Trouble till the day that I disappear
That’ll be the day that I finally get it right

There is hope for me yet because God won’t forget
All the plans He’s made for me I have to wait and see
He’s not finished with me yet

I never really was that good in school; I talked too much, broke the rules
Teacher thought I was hopeless fool alright
I don’t know how but I made it through
It’s one of those things that you’ve gotta do
But I always had a knack for telling the truth

There is hope for me yet because God won’t forget
All the plans He’s made for me I have to wait and see
He’s not finished with me yet

Still wondering why I’m here; still wrestling with my fear
But oh, He’s up to something and the farther on I go
I’ve seen enough to know that I’m not here for nothing
He’s up to something

So now’s my time to be a man; follow my heart as far as I can
No telling where I’m ending up tonight; I never slow down or so it seems
But singing my heart it’s one of my dreams; all I gotta do is hold on tight

There is hope for me yet because God won’t forget
All the plans He’s made for me I have to wait and see
He’s not finished with me yet
