

“Do Not Worry...But How?”

Matthew 6:25-34

Bill Gild, Director of Middle School Ministry

April 29, 2012

“Worry is like a rocking chair; it gives you something to do, but it gets you nowhere.”- Glenn Turner

How do we see God? How does God see us? How do we respond?

Matthew 6:26-27 _____

Matthew 6:28-30 _____

How do we see God? How does God see us? How SHOULD we respond?

Matthew 6:31-33 _____

Talk it over . . . with your friends, family, or Growth Group.

Talking through the ideas presented in Sunday’s message helps us apply God’s word to our individual lives. These questions are designed to help you put His words into action in your life this week.

This week, use the chart above to walk through a situation that causes you excessive stress, anxiety, or worry.

My situation

How do you see God in this situation? Is this consistent with God’s character in Scripture?

How does God see you in this situation? Is this consistent with God’s character in Scripture?

How should you respond in this situation? Is this consistent with godly character in Scripture?

the sermon on the mount

UPSTREAM

Journey Students

David Barkyoumb

Aaron Bellovich

Sarah Cameron

Michael Deer

Rachel Disler

Zach Ellson

Gavin Foley

Brenna Folkers

Trace Gelso

Henry Grunst

Carly Gudgel

Scott Hjelm

Grant Ketchel

Griffin Lane

Lindsey Lehman

Ethan Lilly

David Mattax

Alivia McGuire

Josh Miller

Eric Obermark

Robbie Peters

Cale Reinking

Tucker Row

Blake Shannon

Emily Souders

Cole Surrect

Cole Turgeau

Hannah Wertz

Sean Weston

Tanner Whitescarver