Talk it over…with your friends, family, or Growth Group.

Talking through the ideas presented in Sunday's message helps us apply God's word to our individual lives. These questions are designed to help you put His words into action this week.

Read 1 Corinthians 12-14. The passage we looked at today is a kind of introduction to the full, three-chapter long discussion of gifts. How would you summarize these chapters to a friend if they asked you about them?

1 Corinthians 13—that famous chapter about love that is read so often at weddings is part of this section on gifts. Why do you think that is? In the words of Tina Turner, what's love got to do with it? How does reading chapter 13 help you understand this idea of gifts?

What would you say your spiritual gifts are? Do you know? One way to find out is to take a spiritual gifts test (just Google that and you'll find plenty for free on-line), but perhaps a better way is to find a place to serve and see how God works. Talk to someone who knows you well—or seek out someone here on staff—for thoughts on where your gifts might fit here.

What questions did today's service raise for you? Where can you go to find answers?

Why do you think God had you here today? What do you need to do in light of what you experienced this morning?
