
"Do we HAVE to talk about money?"

Rev. Mike King September 29, 2013

If you're interested in diving deeper into today's topic please join us for a one-night discussion group. For more info contact king@rcctulsa.org

Talk it over…with your friends, family, or Growth Group.

Talking through the ideas presented in Sunday's message helps us apply God's word to our individual lives. These questions are designed to help you put His words into action in your life this week.

Who is the most financially generous person you know?

What is the best piece of financial advice you've ever received? Have you put it into practice? How has it impacted your life and your generosity?

In a real sense, to give is to be an outpost of the Kingdom of God in this world. What is an example of how your life was impacted positively because of someone else's generosity? What is an example of how your generosity advanced the Kingdom of God?

William Law once said that the way we spend our money determines the character of our lives and vice versa. Basically, we know who we are by how we spend our money. Do you think that's true? Why or why not?

We live in the US in the 21st century - we are some of the wealthiest people who have ever lived (even if we make minimum wage!). What does it mean to you that you have been blessed to be a blessing? How can you be a blessing by being generous?

How did you encounter God today? Why do you think you were here? What action can you take to be generous?

Scripture passages for further study and exploration:

2 Corinthians 8-9

Matthew 6.19-34

1 Timothy 6.3-10

Luke 12.13-21

Luke 16.1-15

Note: Don't forget to be praying for the people around you.