

Laura Dester Shelter:

This shelter provides temporary, emergency foster care to children. There are lots of opportunities to help ranging from gardening with children to creating blankets for the kids who pass through the shelter. Contact Elizabeth Hand at 252-9254.

Habitat for Humanity:

Swing a hammer, paint a wall, and help lay sod. Habitat is always working to provide housing to people who need and deserve it. Contact Kim Hand at 252-9254.

Day Center for the Homeless:

Once a month Redeemer provides dinner for folks at the Day Center. The Center also offers a variety of other services to help care for Tulsa's homeless community. Contact Kristi Tackett at 299-1989 x139.

Young Life:

Interested in making a difference in the life of a teenager (or in helping support those who love and work with them?) Ready to jump in? Call Marilyn Sharp at 665-1226 or visit www.younglife.org.

Bixby Food Bank:

The Redeemer WOW group is sponsoring Called to Care with the Bixby Community Outreach Center. The facility serves over 400 families in the Bixby area. Groups and individuals can serve at the center. Contact Jeanne Holmes at 492-7249.

Tulsa Dream Center:

Located in North Tulsa, the Dream Center reaches out to the surrounding community through just about every possible form of outreach you can imagine. If you're interested in learning more about how you could partner with them, call 430-9984 or visit www.tulsadreamcenter.org.

Cornerstone Assistance Network:

CAN does a lot of things to help those in need in Tulsa—everything from vocational training to medical clinics, car care clinics, and furniture outreach. Contact Chris Beach at 583-3670.

Emergency Infant Services

Eileen Bradshaw eiseileenb@sbcglobal.net
www.emergencyinfantservices.org

Good Samaritan Health Services

Change lives by providing medical and spiritual care for those who need it most. You don't have to be a medical person to help. Call Barbara Dunn 492-6109

TU International Student Ministry:

Have you ever wanted to make a difference overseas without leaving your own home town? Help out this ministry which works to share the gospel with international students studying in Tulsa. Give them a call at 857-4373.

Literacy and Evangelism International:

LEI works to produce literacy training materials in a number of different languages. They are an international ministry based in Tulsa, and often have opportunities for groups to volunteer with the many foreign nationals they train for ministry. Contact Laura Guarnieri at 585-3826.

The Little Light House:

The Little Light House is a Christian Developmental Center, serving young children with special needs, from birth through age six. It provides highly individualized educational and therapeutic services in a loving Christian environment, all on a tuition-free basis. Contact Mindy Sakmar at 664-6746.